AFTER THE CORPSE'S SON.

Pursued by a Fire Eater Who Wants His Life.

ASSAULTED THE AVENGER'S WIFE

One of the Assaults Shot Down by Him.

The Story the Woman Told When She Succeeded in Reaching Her Own Fireside.

Associated Press Dispatches.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 11.—A well-known farmer of Bedford county has taken the law into his own hands and avenging an outrage upon his wife by shooting down one of her assailants and is now engaged in pursuing another, who, strange to say, is the son of the man who now lies a corpse.

The shooting occurred yesterday, and the story as told by a neighbor of the avenging husband is as follows:

Sam Blackwell went to see Sam Jennings, who was in bed with the grip, and during his visit saw Mrs. Jennings go to the barn. He got up and followed her, and entering made an indecent proposal, which the woman rejected. Blackwell, however, seized her, and by threatening her life succeeded in his purpose. The man were neighbors.

Blackwell told his son what had occurred and the latter immediately duplicated the assault. The woman, who was seriously injured, finally managed to get to the house and inform the husband of the affair. Mr. Jennings arose at once and, taking his shotgun, found the elder Blackwell, whom he shot and instantly killed with a charge of buckshot. The younger man had seen Jennings coming, and mounting a horse fled towards Alabama. Jennings pursued him as soon as he could saddle up, and he has not since been seen. Public sympathy is with Jennings.

RUNNING CREEDS A CLOSE RACE.

A Marvelously Rich Strike at Cripple Creek Mines.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Feb. 11.—The wildest excitement prevails here to-night over the discovery in the Plymouth Rock shaft, on Gold Hill, at the head of Squaw gulch. At a depth of thirteen feet, a chimney ore was discovered which is a perfect mass of shining gold. The size of the chimney is not definitely known, but it shows the full size of the shaft, and samples taken from it show it to be of marvelous richness, conservative mining men estimating the yield at from $12,000 to $25,000 per ton. The matter is a bluish gray quartz, impregnated with veins of gold, that make it difficult to judge what the raw value of the ore may reach. The property is owned by Kneass Brothers & Steele, who are working it for all the world is in it. Another rich strike has been made in the Washington mine, on Wilson creek, at a depth of fifty-six feet. The pay streak in this property has widened out to twenty inches, and the last three feet of work has been through some of the richest ore yet found in the camp. This property has more than paid the expenses of sinking from the grass roots, and the ore now being taken out shows it to be a wonderful property. No tests have been made of the ore now being taken out, as Mr. Stratton, the owner, is out of the country and has not yet learned of the strike. There are about 3,000 men in the camp. Saloons and dance-houses are run at full blast night and day, and no restraint of any kind is placed upon the hilarious spirits.

"BIG TOM" BACK AGAIN.

Chicago's Notorious Bunco Man Returns from His Trip to Europe.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Tom O'Brien, the noted bunco man, arrived to-day on the steamship Arizona, of the Guion Line, from Liverpool. He bears the sobriquet "Big Tom," and is one of the best known men in his line in the country.

He was born in Chicago, is 38 years old, and entered on a career of crime in the west. Most of his victims were farmers, and the scheme was to buy a sign promising notes which were afterward "raised" and turned into cash.

After committing numerous crimes in this part of the country he sailed for Europe. Detectives were sent to capture him. He was arrested and brought back to stand trial for buncoing a farmer out of $10,000. He jumped his bail.

A Divorce Suit.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11.—The De Stuers' divorce case began this morning. The baroness De Stuers testified that her husband had been an unbecomingly intimate at times subjected her to indignities. At Madrid the baron, pending a commercial treaty, tried to induce his wife to coquette with a foreign minister in order to gain his good will and aid the diplomatic business. This she refused to do. A disposition to baron De Stuers was read, avowing that his wife was mentally deranged.

A Big Pension.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—At an adjourned meeting of the trustees of the New York Life Insurance company this afternoon William H. Beers tendered his resignation as president, and it was unanimously accepted to take effect the 10th inst. Mr. Beers, pursuant to the arrangement made, by which he gives up the presidency of the company retires on a pension of $25,000 per life.

Strike Still On.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 11.—The strike on the Pittsburgh, Allegheny & Manchester traction lines is still on, although the company is running regularly. The seventeen strikers who went back on Saturday quit this morning without assigning any reason for their action.

Died in the Court-Room.

YORK, Pa., Feb. 11.—A. Clark Fulton, a prominent attorney at the York county bar, and chairman of the Republican county committee, died suddenly in the court-room at a few minutes before 11 o'clock this morning.

He was seized with a hemorrhage of the lungs, and although physicians were immediately by his side he expired in a few minutes.

ONE GOOD RESULT.

Telegraph Rates Reduced Between Here and Chile Since the Recent Trouble.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The trouble with Chile has had the effect of reducing the cost of telegraphing to and from that republic. Just how this has happened is a question upon which the Western Union officials are mum, but it is certain at least that official notice has been issued of a reduction of the rate from $2.44 per word to $1.61 per word. The line from this country to Chile is almost a direct one. The wires are used to Galveston, where the gulf cable Vera Cruz, Mexico, is grounded. From Vera Cruz the wires extend directly across Mexico to the Pacific ocean, and thence by cable to Santiago via Panama.

HEIR TO AN ENGLISH ESTATE.

A Poor Indiana Farmer Receives a Letter Containing Glad Tidings.

ENGLISH, Ind., Feb. 11.—Thomas Melrose, a poor farmer near Grantsburg, has received letters of credit from the bank of England calling for any sum less than £1,000,000, accompanied by an urgent call from London solicitors that he report in London at once and claim a large estate in Northern England. Mr. Melrose received the bank of England communication yesterday.

HE MUST HANG.

GEORGE PAINTER KILLED HIS PRETTY WIFE, ALICE.

The Murderer Turned Pale and a Tremor Shook His Frame When Sentence Was Passed.

Associated Press Dispatches.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—George Painter must hang for the murder of Alice Martin, otherwise known as Alice Painter, his common-law wife. The jury was out all night, and the reading of the death verdict in the cold, foggy atmosphere of Judge Clifford's court Sunday was in keeping with the repellent character of the case throughout. Painter, who, up to this time, had appeared perfectly cool, turned pale and a tremor shook his frame. The crime of which Painter is convicted occurred May 11 last. The woman was proven to be of immoral character, and the story told by the prisoner was that he went home late on the night of the murder and found her on the floor of their bedroom where she had evidently been beaten to death with a club. Painter maintained throughout the trial that the deed must have been committed by some of the woman's numerous callers, and showed that she had saved his life through a contagious fever. The chief evidence against him was an overcoat stained with blood.

ONE KILLED IN A COLLISION.

Falling Snow Together With the Darkness Caused a Wreck on the Pennsylvania.

WARREN, Ind., Feb. 11.—A rear end collision of Eastern bound freight trains took place at 3 o'clock this morning on the Pennsylvania road, one mile west of this place, with fatal results. The first section of No. 74 stopped at the water tank. The second section stopped behind it, the caboose standing on a curve. It was snowing hard at the time. Freight train No. 76 came around the curve at a high rate of speed and crashed into the caboose, totally demolishing five cars of freight and badly wrecking the locomotive.

Conductor Edward Thorpe was caught in his caboose and so badly injured that he died in a few minutes. Engineer Dickson and his fireman were slightly injured by jumping.

HOPELESSLY IN DEBT.

The Detroit Evening Journal Wades in Deeper Than It Can Stand.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 11.—Sheriff Hanley seized the Evening Journal yesterday afternoon on two chattel mortgages for William Livingstone, Jr. One mortgage is for $35,000 to Bankers Trust & Sons, and the other for $25,000 to world's fair President Palmer. There is also a large amount of floating indebtedness and the paper is thought to be $100,000 behind. Mr. Livingstone will assume the management of the paper at once, but it is generally known that he is merely a figurehead for Mr. Palmer in the transaction. The paper will continue Republican in politics and no changes are announced, although Mr. Brearly, the head of the establishment will step out.

PENNSYLVANIA DESPERADOES.

They Make a Running Fight Against a Crowd of Pursuers.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 11.—James Marshall and David Dunkley started a fight in a bar room today and gave two policemen and a crowd of 200 men and boys a race of two miles before they were caught. Both had pistols, and kept up a running fire. One of the bullets struck John Sweizer in the left shoulder, inflicting a serious wound.

Police officers also were wounded in both arms and a boy shot through the hand. When taken into custody, each man was found to have a full set of burglar tools. They are believed to be companions of Wm. Carney, arrested yesterday for the robbery of the office of the Lucknow Forge.

Will Reorganize.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 11.—It is reported on good authority that the directors of the American Live Stock association, which has an organization in all the principal cattle markets of the country, is about to dissolve the present organization for the purpose of reorganizing on a new basis.

Spurgeon's Funeral.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Final service over the remains of Rev. Mr. Spurgeon were held at the Tabernacle today. The Tabernacle and streets to the cemetery were crowded.

DON'T LIKE CHINAMEN.

Knights of Labor Opposed to the Mongolians.

THEY MUST STOP COMING HERE.

Thousands of Celestials Are Flocking to These Shores.

Congress Petitioned to Prevent the Immigration of the Pig-Tailed Gentry.

Associated Press Dispatches.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 11.—Advices received at the general offices of the knights of labor are to the effect that over fifty thousand members of the order have already signed the petitions to congress against Chinese immigration and in favor of United States senator by direct vote of the people of the various states which were issued by the general executive board a few weeks since. The Chinese restriction act expires on May 6th next, and reports from the Celestial empire indicate that thousands of Mongolians are preparing to flock to these shores. The petition which has now been signed urgently demands the immediate passage of a law to prevent the immigration or importation of Chinese to the United States, and that will forever deny them admission to the territory embraced within the limits of the country. The other petition is in support of a joint resolution submitted to the United States senate on December 10 last by Senator Turpie, of Indiana, proposing an amendment to the constitution for the election of senators by direct vote.

ROBBED A PAWNBROKER.

Daring and Successful Foot of a Gang of Omaha Criminals.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 11.—The police were notified today that Sam Snyder, a pawnbroker, had been robbed of $2,100 by a gang who had represented themselves to Snyder as train-robbers, who desired him to act as the receiver of their stolen property. Snyder agreed to meet the men and talk over the matter. He went to a room to do so, but instead was covered with revolvers and made a prisoner. He was told that if he did not pay his captors $2,000 they would kill him. After remaining a prisoner all night Snyder went to the bank, accompanied by two men, and drew the money. The men then disappeared with the cash. An ex-city detective is implicated in the robbery.

The Great Exposition.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—The full board of directors of the world's fair is in special session for the purpose of considering the report of the committee on federal legislation concerning a plan of procedure with respect to obtaining an appropriation of five million dollars from congress. Gen. J. W. St. Clair, of West Virginia, chairman of the National committee of the National commission, is also in attendance. The report will not be made public until adopted by the board, but it is understood that it favors an appropriation to be expended under the auspices of the National commission otherwise than for grounds and buildings. This is a virtual withdrawal on the part of the directory of any application for federal aid so far as the enterprise proper is concerned. Judge St. Clair has prepared an elaborate budget which covers the estimated expenses of all departments up to the day of the gates at Jackson park being thrown open.

From St. Louis to Europe.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11.—A scheme is on foot which may result in the shipment of grain from this city direct to Europe without trans-shipment. The success of the steamers known as the "Whale-back" in making the voyage from Duluth to Liverpool has attracted attention of both the local exporters and eastern capitalists and it is believed that vessels of this class can be sent to Europe by way of the Mississippi river and the Gulf of Mexico.

American Mails Delayed.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A letter to the Times over G. W. Smalley's signature complains that the English postoffice authorities made no attempt to forward the Elders mail until the North German Lloyd owners started hints to the effect that the same indifference is shown to all American mails arriving at Southampton.

A Mayor in a Bad Fix.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 11.—Mayor Wiman of Allegheny City, was convicted this morning of extortion. A charge of embezzlement is still pending.

CHARGES CONSPIRACY.

WHY A CLEVELAND MAN THINKS HE SHOULD BE DIVORCED.

Society Considerably Worked Up Over the Allegations a Husband Makes Against His Wife.

Associated Press Dispatches.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 11.—A sensation was caused yesterday when Capt. J. W. Moore, one of the best known and wealthiest vessel owners on the great lakes, began suit for divorce against his wife, Mrs. Laura A. Moore. He is about 60 years old, and she about 40.

He married her twelve years ago when she was a widow with two children. He charges her with gross unfaithfulness at many times and places, and cites a number of instances. A prominent livery stable keeper and one J. Albert Wilson, and another whose name is unknown for $100,000 damages. She charges conspiracy. She alleges that Wilson, or a person going by that name, was introduced to her by William S. Mack as being a personal friend of his family, and that Wilson under the plea of taking her to visit his wife and through the conspiring of the defendants, took her to a house of ill-repute.

Mrs. Moore claims that it is a conspiracy to deprive her of her just share of her husband's estate, and that Wilson was paid $5,000 for his work.

A TERROR IN THE TOILS.

Seno Santacruz Threatened the Lives of Gila Bend Citizens.

PARADED AROUND WITH KNIVES.

Visionary and Malignant Reports Regarding the Wolfey Dam.

Burglars Break Into a Drug Store and Thieves Make Off With Costly Wearing Apparel.

Special to THE REPUBLICAN.

GILA BEND, Ariz., Feb. 11.—The townspeople breathed easier yesterday when the western train pulled out for Phoenix having as passengers Deputy Sheriff McPhaul and a prisoner he had in charge by the name of Seno Santacruz.

A few days ago Seno while in a state of intoxication rushed through the streets holding in his hand two long blades knives, with which he threatened to take the lives of several prominent citizens who he imagined had done him an injury.

Deputy Sheriff McPhaul went in pursuit of the liquor-crazed man, and after a lively tussle succeeded in disarming him of his weapons. Seno was locked up, and later sentenced to work on the streets by the justice.

Yesterday morning the prisoner was truculent and stubborn, and though he did the work set out for him he was a troublesome and continued his threats against the lives of his imaginary foes.

This morning he refused to go to work, and as a matter of personal safety to the community it was thought best to have him imprisoned in the county jail at Phoenix.

WILL NOT BE MOVED.

No Change of Site of a Railroad Depot Contemplated.

"You can state most emphatically in the report that there is no truth in the report that the passenger depot of the Maricopa & Phoenix railroad will be moved from its present site, and what's more, no such move is or has ever been contemplated."

So said Mr. C. S. Masten, vice president of the Maricopa and Phoenix railroad, to a reporter of THE REPUBLICAN when he was asked yesterday if street reports that the depot was to be moved a half dozen blocks west were true.

Mr. Masten expressed a desire to learn the source from whence the report originated, and this not being forthcoming he authorized THE REPUBLICAN to make the above announcement as coming from him officially.

The report of the removal was generally circulated yesterday, and those who seemed to know all about said that the change was really settled upon as the M. & P. people were desirous of being as close as possible to the depot of the Santa Fe road when it laid its tracks into Phoenix.

Lopez Proves His Innocence.

Alberto Lopez was arraigned before Recorder Schwartz yesterday morning on a charge of having stolen a gold watch from a wayfarer into the checkered districts who was so much absorbed in the sights and scenes that he did not notice he was being relieved of his time-keeper. The evidence produced against the prisoner was all on his side, and he was therefore accorded his freedom.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Movements of Phoenix People—Arrivals and Departures.

J. C. Skiff, of St. Louis, is registered at the Mills.

W. H. C. Goode is an arrival from Sydney, Mich.

H. E. Cert, of Dallas, Texas, is stopping at the Commercial.

Mrs. W. W. Wait and her son, of Chicago, have engaged quarters at the Mills and will remain in the city several weeks.

Dr. C. B. Howe, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., and Joseph W. Davis, of Deseret university, Salt Lake City, Utah, write to friends in the city that they contemplate locating in Phoenix.

Messrs. E. J. and T. N. Bouine, of Niles, Mich., are guests at the Commercial. The gentlemen are here with a view of looking over the river valley, over and as they are much impressed with what they have already seen they may locate here.

Young Field Indicted.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The grand jury today returned an indictment for forgery against Edward M. Field. It alleged that he forged the name of E. More to a bill of lading for a large quantity of wheat last November.

SNOW AND RAIN.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER IN YAVAPAI COUNTY.

Provisions Are Quoted High and the People Are Expecting a Visit From Floods This Month.

An old friend of Hon. Charles D. Poston, writing from Charming Dol, Yavapai county, says:

It is snowing so that I am compelled to stay in doors to-day and I will improve my otherwise idle hour by boring you with the condition of country, climate etc.

We had a very dry summer and the fall was still drier and drier still until the 26th of January so that but very little grain has been sown for hay. The wild grasses on the range were entirely exhausted and stock were suffering badly. On the 26th of January it commenced to rain and has continued unceasingly to rain or snow ever since. In our valley, and other valleys near here, the snow is about three inches deep, but if the weather had not been so moderate that it melted nearly as fast as it fell it would have been three feet.

On the Black hills near Jerome it is three feet and also on Juniper range just west of us. Snow is from one to two feet deep along the A. P. R. R. through this and also Cocoonino county.

Last February the floods damaged us severely and there is a probability that we will have more water than we want when the melting snows come from the highlands.

Corn is worth 3 cents per lb; potatoes are worth 2½ cents per lb; beans are worth 6 cents per lb; grass hay is worth $20 per ton; green hay is worth $25 to $30 per ton.

LOCAL BRIEFITIES.

Sayings and Doings in Phoenix and the Surrounding Country.

The whiskered law suit of Talbot and others against the Phoenix Mining company will be given a reawakening in the district court this morning.

A merry delegation of ladies and gentlemen from Tempe will visit the city to-night on a special train to attend the performance at the opera house.

New poles are being erected by the Electric Light company, and arrangements are being made for the system which is the most complete and best managed of any like institution in the whole country.

Dr. Mahoney, the attending physician at the county hospital, reports the few patients now under his charge as doing well and says that he has not had an applicant for treatment for several days. One patient was discharged yesterday.

The attaches of the sheriff's office are busy appraising the fifty men chosen for jury duty for the criminal term of the district court, which convenes next Monday, of the honor accorded them.

Some of those selected are not, however, pleased with the distinction.

District Attorney Cox has all his arrangements about completed, and the attorneys for Dr. Helm are also active in completing the details for the trial of their client which will begin in the district court on Monday next. Both sides have subpoenaed a small army of witnesses, and it is thought that the trial will take the greater part of the week to complete.

The attractive views of the city and valley furnished from the cupola of the county court house attracts numbers of ladies to that capital source of observation daily, and they are gallantly piloted to and from the cupola by agreeable and accommodating Under Sheriff Barry who stamps reports that he exacts a toll from the fair visitors a campaign line that emanates from the political tepees of the Alliance, Prohibition and Republican parties.

Nineteen cars of cattle were pulled out last night over the Maricopa and Phoenix railroad for the Los Angeles market. The animals were in prime condition, and as the railroads are now furnishing shippers with prompt and efficient service the cattle arrive at their destination in good shape. The market is active, and there is a corresponding degree of happiness and contentment visible among those engaged in the cattle industry of Arizona, which is rapidly displacing more pretensions competitors.

Jennie Will Face the Recorder.

Miss Jennie Adams will be introduced to Recorder Schwartz this morning. She will be called upon to explain why she disturbed the tranquility of the community in which she abides by reducing the furniture of a neighbor to kindling wood and breathing words not altogether soft and sweet.

THEY ASK FOR MONEY.

Appeals Made to the Charitable People of Arizona.

HELP THE STARVING RUSSIANS.

Funds Necessary to Pay the Shipments of Donations.

The Governor Asked to Appoint Committees to Assist in the Commendable Work.

Acting Governor Murphy is in receipt of the following which he has turned over to THE REPUBLICAN for publication. His excellency is in warm sympathy with the movement, and it is understood that he will do all within his power to help it along.

OFFICE OF RUSSIAN FAMINE RELIEF COMMITTEE, OF THE UNITED STATES, 731 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27, 1892.

His Excellency the Governor of Arizona: DEAR SIR:—Inasmuch as it is now beyond question that the prevailing famine among the peasantry of Russia is so widespread as to embrace some fourteen great provinces with a population of twenty or twenty-five million; multitudes who must perish if not promptly relieved; and whereas, the people of this great nation being especially blessed with bountiful harvests, are abundantly able, hence are duty bound, to lead all the nations in the philanthropic work of forwarding supplies in large amount and at the earliest moment; and whereas it is finally determined that congress is not prepared to appropriate money for transportation, as recommended by the president of the United States, so that the entire question of relief is thus left to the people themselves and whereas, it is highly important that both the necessity for action and the proper method of procedure should be set forth to the public in an authoritative manner.

Therefore, the Russian famine relief committee of the United States, acting in full harmony with the American National Red Cross association, as represented by its able and philanthropic president, Miss Clara Barton, who is able to pledge the co-operation of that great organization to the extent of full responsibility for the judicious distribution of all supplies accorded, as well as for the economical use of all monies contributed for the purchase and transportation of food, have deemed it their duty to respectfully urge upon the governors of the several states the propriety of issuing, with as little delay as possible, their official proclamations commending to their constituents the cause of Russia's famishing millions; pointing out the steps requisite to prompt and efficient action, and naming such committee or committees as should be charged with giving full force to such proclamations.

The committee also calls your Excellency's attention to the singularly systematic and efficient manner in which a state committee so appointed by the Governor of Iowa is already at work; to the fact that the great railway corporations have agreed to transport grain and other supplies intended for Russia without charge, if duly labelled by the Red Cross Association; and that said association has already made arrangements for reduced rates across the sea, and for the placing of supplies from this country in the hands of the Russian branch of the Red Cross organization of the world.

This committee, further intending to promote the raising of contributions by means of public meetings as well as by enlisting the private efforts of individuals, that work, respectfully ask to be put in communication with such committee or committees as your excellency may be pleased to appoint in this great interest within your territory. We have the honor to be, sir, with great respect, Your obedient servant,

JOHN W. HOYD,

Chairman of the committee.

Two Bold Burglaries.

Mrs. Westbrook, wife of Mr. Westbrook, of the firm of Bostwick & Westbrook, writes back from California that upon opening a box containing a lot of wearing apparel and jewelry she discovered that several silk dresses and about $50 worth of jewelry had been taken from it. The box had been left standing over night in front of the store of Bostwick & Westbrook previous to the day of shipment, and it is presumed that it was rifled by the toughs who have rendezvous in this section. Deputy Sheriff McPhaul is at work on the case.

A Few Nights Ago the drug store of Mr. Pratt was broken into and the thieves made way with several boxes of cigars and a lot of playing cards and toilet articles.

A False Alarm.

The telegraph wires between here and Phoenix were kept hot yesterday by messages asking for particulars relative to the Wolfey dam having been flooded by water from the busted dam at Florence. It seems that such a report had originated with some visionary individual in Phoenix, and there was not a word of truth in it. No one here knew anything of an accident having befallen the Florence works, and if there had it in no way affected the Wolfey property on which work is rapidly and unceasingly progressing.

Killed by a Train.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 11.—A special to the News from Vincennes says: Last evening John W. Smith, a farmer 55 years old, was killed by a freight train near this city. He refused to leave the track, though repeatedly warned by the train. He leaves a large family.
